St. Luke News

The occasion of the Cornerstone Baptist Sunday school union that met with the St. Luke Church school. Sun., Aug. 30 at 9:45 was a much awed because of the funeral of a great preacher, the Rev. A. A. Wood, formerly of Cullen, but pastored churches in N. Y. His funeral was carried out at the St. Andrew's Church. Many of the people that came to the union did hurry away for the 11:30 funeral of the Rev. Wood.

Not with standing all this the services of the union was reasonably good. The president Rev. T. M. Venerable was present and carried out the program hastily. Little Miss Rosa Mae Burnes, age 6 yrs. was on for the welcome from the church school. Response by Miss Susette Randolph. Rev. McLaughlin being on vacation Rev. Alvin Jones was pressed for the occasion. His subject "Love Will Overcome." This he handled well. The ladies of the church served a pleasing lunch.

Rev. McLaughlin is still on vacation. The regular preaching services at the St. Luke Church Sunday, Sept. 6 was in charge of the Rev. Rudder was well attend by friends and members. Rev. used as subject Matt 10:47-48, "God always Hears Our Cry," this was well taken by the listeners. His mother-in-law, Mrs. Esther Callaham was present and she has no legs, only the use of one hand yet she keeps a pleasant smile and she was brought forward with her were six of her children and sang a spiritual "I've Decided to Make Jesus My Choice." This was very impressive.

Rev. Rudder and his wife spent sometime with his and her relatives and friends.

Mrs. Louise Canada has returned home after spending a week with her niece, Mrs. A. D. Nance in Baltimore, Md.

Mrs. Catherine Tweedy has returned home after spending two weeks with her sister, Mrs. A. D. Nance in Baltimore, Md.

The St. Luke members attended homecoming services at the Memorial Baptist Church recently of which Rev. J. McLaughlin is pastor.

Denise Kaye Netherland
Passed away Sept.18, 1980.
Oh, Denise, we miss you so!
Child of our loins, friend of our youth, love of our life,
hope of our future,
must we plunge heodlong and homesick through all our tomorrows, with a void in our lives that time will only shrink?
We would not have held you wounded and weary, nor hept you from the God you loved so well; And yet our world is infinitely duller without your laughter, your enthusiasm, your joy and the love that held, and healed, and returned to life.
A lifetime lasts as long as it takes to accomplish the tasks allotted, how have touched, and cheered, and blessed more lives than you could have known.
The after affects of your days will multiply unceasingly and the spirit of your giving continues to enrich our legacy to us. Reminders of you will touch our hearts with the caress of a springtime breeze, the warmth of an autumn fire, and the comfort of a bedtime prayer.
The stars will remind us of your constancy; a friendly smile of your compassion; an early ponytail of your faith.
And so, we have not lost the essence of you at all, as long as there is comfort and caring, sympathy and solace, laughter and love.
Our world is richer because you were here and heaven the brighter because you are there. We salute your spirit and rejoice in your memory.
But, Dear Denise,
we miss you so!

In memory of D. J. (Doc) Franklin who passed away one year ago Sept. 15, 1980.
God saw you getting weaker and he did what he thought was best. He took you home to rest.
You could not wish us a last goodby, but we understood the reason why.
Sadly missed by Wife and Family
